REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record, neither singly nor in combination, disclose a protective bed cover with a door affixed to the cover via a hinge for allowing ingress and egress to the protective chamber and a ventilation system having ductwork passing through the cover for filtering air that passes into the protective chamber, the ventilation system including at least one filter, a fan and an electronically actuated valve and, a door actuator attached between the cover and the door and for opening and closing the door and the door actuator including a quick release mechanism for allowing an operator to disengage the actuator from the door such that the door may be opened manually.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The provided references are representative of the state of the art that is applicable to the applicant's invention. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Derek S. Boles at (571) 272-4872.
